Rotary Timeline

1905

Attorney Paul P. Harris of Chicago, Illinois, USA, envisions a new kind of group for professionals to cultivate business ties and develop friendships. On the evening of 23 February, he invites three friends to a meeting and plants the seeds of the world's oldest and most prestigious service club organization.

As the club continues to meet and add to its ranks, meetings rotate among members' offices, and the group begins to call itself the Rotary Club of Chicago.

10x10™ ('ten by ten') is an interactive exploration of the words and pictures that define the time. The result is an often moving, sometimes shocking, occasionally frivolous, but always fitting snapshot of our world. Every hour, 10x10 collects the 100 words and pictures that matter most on a global scale, and presents them as a single image, taken to encapsulate that moment in time.

☆ RECENT NEWS ☆

Trail Curler Headed for National Stage

As Trail's Don Freschi watched the final shot hit and stick giving his team the B.C. men's curling title on Sunday, over three decades of hope finally let loose in celebration. Skip Deane Horning made the crucial final shot giving his rink of Freschi, Fred Thomson and Rob Nobert, a 7-5 victory over Kelowna's Bob Ussel in the championship game in Smithers.

The win sends the West Kootenay champion foursome to the Brier national championships in Edmonton.

☆ BEAVER VALLEY ROTARY CLUB'S 50TH ANNIVERSARY PROJECT

The BVRC is celebrating its 50th Anniversary. As a gift to the people of the valley they are purchasing a 15' high four faced clock. The clock will be instaled on the corner of Columbia Gardens Road and Main Street in front of Falkins Insurance. Along with the clock there will be a concrete and brass marker erected to display names of benefactors and sponsors.

CLEAR THE LAKE

An elderly man in Florida had owned a large farm for several years. He had a large pond in the back, fixed up nice picnic tables, horseshoe courts, and some orange and grapefruit trees. The pond was properly shaped and fixed up for swimming when it was built.

One evening the old farmer decided to go down to the pond, as he hadn't been there for a while, and look it over. He grabbed a five gallon bucket to bring back some fruit. As he neared the pond, he heard voices shouting and laughing with glee. As he came closer he saw it was a bunch of young women skinny-dipping in his pond. He made the women aware of his presence and they all went to the deep end.

One of the women shouted to him, "We're not coming out until you leave!"

The old man frowned, "I didn't come down here to watch you ladies swim naked or make you get out of the pond naked."

Holding the bucket up he said, "I'm here to feed the alligator."

Moral: Old men can still think fast.

☆ WORTH KNOWING! ☆

The Health and Hospital (H&H) Committee of the LCCDT, chaired by Rotarian Don Nutini, has done a fantastic job of creating a web page to help people know about the services of the KBRH and our local community. Check out the site at www.kbrh.ca. Pass this information on to all your friends. Site was developed by Glenn Schneider.

After the game, the king and the pawn go into the same box.
